Crime in Oxfordshire falling, figures reveal

By Adam Flinn
adam.flinn@taylornewspapers.co.uk

CRIME reported in Oxfordshire has fallen by an average of more than six per cent, latest figures published by Thames Valley Police on Monday have revealed.

Each of the county's five policing areas – Oxford, Vale of White Horse, South Oxfordshire, West Oxfordshire and Cherwell – recorded drops in crime between April 2014 and March this year, averaging out at 6.48 per cent.

It equates to 32,799 crimes in Oxfordshire, compared to 35,237 for the previous 12 months from 2013 to 2014.

Most of the policing areas saw significant drops in burglaries and robberies, as well as in vehicle theft.

However, there was a sharp increase in the number of sexual offences reported, as victims gain the confidence to come forward about historic incidents in the wake of national scandals involving high profile names.

Francis Habgood, chief constable of Thames Valley police, said: "Crime in the Thames Valley continues to fall and victim satisfaction remains high.

"The reduction for robbery, burglary and vehicle theft is particularly significant – this is testament to the officers, staff and volunteers who, with the support of members of the public and partners, worked so hard to achieve this.

"The greater reporting of sexual offences is encouraging and we will continue to safeguard and protect victims of these crimes and thoroughly investigate each case."

Across the Thames Valley, the total number of crimes fell from 127,408 in 2013/14 to 121,208 in the latest figures, with 5,008 fewer victims.

Anthony Stansfeld, police and crime commissioner for Thames Valley, said: "I want to thank all the Thames Valley police officers, staff and volunteers for their continued hard work.

Crime is now at a 25 year low and household burglary at a 41 year low.

"The force is already committed to the challenges of delivering policing to all communities and is tackling new emerging trends such as cyber crime, exploitation and slavery."

Oxford sees domestic abuse rise

INCIDENTS of domestic abuse have also risen in many areas across the county, particularly so in Oxford.

There was an 18 per cent increase in the number of crimes recorded by police between April 2014 and March 2015 – equating to 796 incidents, compared to 677.

But Christian Bunt, Local Policing Area (LPA) commander for Oxford, believes this is because more people are coming forward to report such crimes.

He said: "My personal opinion is that domestic abuse is very under reported – it's a very personal – so the fact there's increased reporting is a good sign.

"It shows we're asking the right questions and we're getting disclosures from victims.

"We used to get a lot of no's, the victims just weren't talking to us, but now more people are disclosing which to me says they have more confidence."

In the county's other policing areas, Cherwell, South Oxfordshire and West Oxfordshire also saw rises in domestic abuse crime – up nine per cent, five per cent and six per cent respectively.

Only the Vale of White Horse saw a reduction, with incidents dropping by five per cent.

Two-thirds increase in sexual offence reports

WHILE crimes falling across the county all five policing areas saw the numbers of sexual offences reported increase by between 18 and 59 per cent.

All but the Vale of White Horse saw the number of rapes reported increase by more than 69 per cent, with South Oxfordshire's figures more than doubling from 17 to 37.

Across the county the number of rapes reported to police between April 2014 and March 2015 rose from 163 to 305.

But while the numbers were increasing, the Local Policing Area (LPA) commanders shared the view that this showed more people were feeling confident enough to come forward and report incidents sometimes years later.

Kath Lowe, LPA commander for West Oxfordshire and Cherwell, said: "High profile national cases have made people see that police will take you seriously.

"So I think it's an increase in confidence, which is really good news."

Jim O'Ryan, acting LPA commander for South Oxfordshire and Vale of White Horse, added: "Whilst we don't want these offences to take place in the first place, we encourage people who have been victims to let us know."

No-one injured after blaze at Randolph

Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue Service was called at 4 37pm and sent 14 fire engines at the height of the fire to battle the blaze

Paramedics from South Central Ambulance Service at the scene assessed three people but the patients did not need any further medical treatment

All of the hotels the guests were accommodated at alternative sites overnight by MacDonald Hotels which runs the Randolph.

Oxfordshire County Council reopened Beaumont Street in central Oxford on Monday after noon after a safety inspection by experts of the gable end at the hotel that morning

A clean-up operation is under way with cherry-pickers being used for the roof

The eastbound carriageway of Beaumont Street remains closed with traffic in that direction being diverting onto Walton Street

Thames Valley Police have confirmed they do not believe the fire was suspicious

But reports that the fire was caused by flambe cooking in which the flames got sucked up into the vent are yet to be confirmed by the hotel

Peter Cleary area manager for Oxfordshire s fire and rescue service said "Although the fire was a dramatic one we did successfully manage to prevent it from spreading to large parts of the hotel.

Cleary also gave his best wishes to a wedding party that had been resident at the hotel who later married elsewhere

Supt Christian Bunt LPA commander for Oxford, said "We are working to ensure the impact on members of the public is kept to a minimum.

"Thank you to residents and members of the public for their patience and co-operation during this incident."

Cllr Rodney Rose, deputy leader of Oxfordshire County Council said "The council is very proud of its fire and rescue service and yet again our fire-fighters have responded magnificently"

New Aldi store causes frustrations for Didcot

DIDCOT residents have voiced their frustrations at the traffic congestion in the town following the opening of a new Aldi store on Broadway

The eagerly awaited store was opened on Thursday last week by the Mayor of Didcot Cllr Scott Wilgrove

The store is part of Aldi's general expansion across Oxfordshire and the Home Counties with a number of stores planned for 2015 across the region

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

However residents have taken to social media to voice their thoughts on its impact towards traffic congestion on Jubilee Way roundabout.

Facebook user Barbie Sim said "It was obviously going to happen It was bad enough before you can't turn right out of it you have to go left and back round the roundabout now"

Tina Holland 29 from Lady grove said "I do think it has slightly increased since Aldi opened but I do think the congestion was there before

The novelty of Aldi will wear off in a few weeks and everything will ease off."

However others said that the main cause of traffic is due to Cow Lane Bridge being shut.

Facebook user Julie Harvey said "I think the Cow Lane closure is causing most of the trouble it took me an hour to get from Tesco to Brasenose "

Facebook user Lauren Ann Offers also reiterated this saying "Cow lane is the problem' More people are driving because it's a long walk round, meaning even more traffic "

Aldi didn't respond to requests for comment as the Guardian went to press

Tributes released for Didcot teen motorcyclist

TRIBUTES have been released for the Didcot teenage motorcyclist that was killed after colliding with two vehicles in Frilford Abingdon on Monday April 13

Kieran Hughes, 19, was riding on the A415 Abingdon Road on his orange Yamaha motorcycle when it collided with a grey Mini Countryman travelling the same way just before 4 30pm

The motorcycle subsequently collided with a silver Ford Transit travelling in the opposite direction

Kieran's sister Kim and father Nigel said in a joint statement "We would like to express how thankful we are for all the support and kind comments we have had from everybody

"Kieran was and always will be loved by many he was always known as the clown of the group especially due to his cheeky little grin."

Another tribute came on behalf of Kieran's mother Ann and family friend Richard Fenn, which said, "R.I.P my beautiful young man forever Peter Pan. You will always be in our thoughts and so close to our hearts

"God bless you and shine brightly we love you so very much"

Election hopefuls battle it out in Botley hustings

• (From left) Nicola Blackwood, Sally Copley, Mike Foster, Layla Moran, hustings chairman Revd Graham Sykes, Helen Salisbury and Larry Sanders

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

MORE than 300 Botley residents gathered at St Peter's and St Paul's Church on Friday to listen to debates between six election candidates for the Oxford West and Abingdon seat

The hustings saw Nicola Blackwood (Conservative) Layla Moran (Liberal Democrat), Sally Copley (Labour) Larry Sanders (Green), Mike Foster (Socialist Party of Great Britain) and Helen Salisbury (National Health Action Party) take to the stage

They spoke with residents about a range of issues affecting Botley in particular such as the West Way Shopping Centre development and traffic on the A34

And following the debate, the Guardian asked each of the candidates how they would improve the lives of constituents in Oxford West and Abingdon

Nicola Blackwood said "Over the last five years we've really had one guiding principle and that's to just listen to my constituents and do whatever I can to champion their concerns

"They've told me very clearly that traffic is an absolute nightmare for the whole constituency so I've fought both and hail to get investment for the A34 and hundreds of millions of pounds for junction improvements"

Layla Moran said, "Since I was selected nearly three years ago the first thing that comes to mind is the terrible state of our planning system

"People are looking for a proactive MP who gets stuck in at the earliest opportunity to solve those problems and also makes sure the infrastructure goes with it"

Sally Copley said "There's a real choice at this election and the Labour Party's values are really strong, saying that we are the party that will stand up for ordinary working people

"That means helping people with their fuel bills by freezing energy bills and making sure people earn a decent wage"

Larry Sanders said "If we elect any of the major parties we will not have a good NHS because all their plans are based on underfunding, privatisation and fragmentation.

"If we taxed the very rich and understood the debt that we've got is not a disaster if's normal we could have a decent country"

Mike Fosler said "The whole structure of society works against most people and MPs can't change the basic way society is put together

"The Socialist Party believes in a different society of common ownership of resources and industry services where those services can be run in the interests of everyone'

And Helen Salisbury said, 'I will improve the lives of the constituents of Oxford West and Abingdon by protecting our National Health Service

"At the moment it is on the brink of collapse it has been brought here by funding cuts which have squeezed it to the extent that it is almost incapable of providing the care that we need"

At the last election, Oxford West and Abingdon saw the seventh closest result in the country as Nicola Blackwood won by 179 votes from former Liberal Democrat MP Evan Harris

The election is being held on May 7 Ukip's Alan Harris is also standing for the seat

Wizarding world brought to life

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@oxfordnewspapers.co.uk

HUNDREDS of Harry Potter fans brought JK Rowling's books to life as Oxford played host to the European Quidditch Cup

A total of 32 teams from across the continent battled on makeshift broomsticks to fight for the quaffle at Hersparth Athletics and Sports Ground on Saturday and Sunday

Among them were two Oxford squads – Oxford University Quidditch Club's 1st team called the Radcliffe Chimeras, and their 2nd team called the Oxford Quidlings

Quidlings Captain Jack Lennard said "It was an amazing experience – all these people know each other through the Quidditch community so to have them all in one place made it such a special atmosphere"

The game which is based on the sport from the magical Harry Potter fiction book series sees players mix elements of rugby dodgeball and lacrosse to score the most points

When a player manages to throw a quaffle through one of three hoops at their end of the pitch the team scores 10 points and when a team catches the snitch – a small ball attached to a person who runs onto the pitch – they get 30 points and the game ends

Meanwhile players can throw balls called bludgers at their rivals in the style of dodgeball and if they hit the opposition has to run to the hoops at their end of the pitch before they are allowed back into the game.

Players have to run with broomsticks between their legs.

It was France that claimed the overall victory out of the 11 European countries represented

The Paris Titans sought out the snitch first to claim the winners cup in a hard fought 150-80 final against Oxford's Radcliffe Chimeras

The Oxford Quidlings the only 2nd team side in the tournament came out 20th overall

Oxford Quidlings player David Diska said "The atmosphere was electric, overall it's very friendly and positive here its been an absolute pleasure to be here both in winning and in losing."

Simon Belden from Newcastle added, "I came with a group of friends and I couldn't really miss an opportunity to watch a bunch of people running round with broomsticks between their legs"

Quidditch was founded in 2005 by American students taken off across the world

260th protest at Campsfield House centre

A DEMONSTRATION to protest against the Campsfield House immigration detention centre near Kidlington will take place this Saturday for the 260th time

Campaign to Close Campsfield has called for public support as they aim to make cheerful noise outside Campsfield House, in what has become a regular occasion on every last Saturday of the month for 21 years

It comes as Kidlington parish council voted last month that the centre should close

The vote followed the government's withdrawal of its planning application to Cherwell Council to double the centre's size

The committee stated that the detention centre does not accord with the UNHCR guidelines on the use of detention only as a last resort, instead using it as a detergent for refuge seekers

They highlight that the area Campsfield House occupies could meet local housing and employment needs

Campaign spokesperson Bill MacKeith said "We will keep going until the centre and all other immigration detention centres like it close"

Campsfield House declined to comment ahead of this weekend's protest

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!
It's been a very few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames – has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services
Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up, we just replace the glass as a function of the unit not a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly by that during the good times a minority, perhaps didn't focus on customers care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as it was, if not better. Customers let us know how they really feel and I expect that sort of service which in my view is very rare in the service industry as a whole.
Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is resonating with his customers. The truths that I'm not telling the potential customer is that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.
So if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he will be happy to help.

Bicester Village to expand by 25%

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@oxfordmediagroup.co.uk

REVISED plans to increase retail space at Bicester Village by a quarter have been given the go ahead by Cherwell District Council s planning committee

The plans will also increase the number of parking spaces after members of the planning committee approved an updated planning application last Thursday

The existing Tesco store, petrol station and part of the current outlet centre will be demolished to provide the new retail space and parking

Bicester Nominees Ltd & Bicester 11 Nominees LTD submitted the updated plans which were previously approved in July 2014

The updated plans are now set to include 519 new parking spaces instead of the original 372 that were outlined before.

The expansion will accommodate 28 new units within the 5 191 square metres of additional retail space

• An artist s impression of the expansion to Bicester Village

The centre s overall size will have increased by 24 per cent and in addition to the parking spaces various highways improvements will be undertaken to reduce the area's congestion during peak times

These improvements include the installation of traffic lights at the Pingle Drive roundabout and the creation of two new Eastbound lanes for the A41

A new Park and Ride facility is also under conditions for approval, which could be in operation by October

Andy Preston the council's head of development management, said "Effectively this is the same planning application that was approved last year with the main difference being the area of land along the southern boundary which will allow for the provision of more parking spaces.

The village attracts millions of visitors from around the world each year so it's important provisions are in place to meet the demand."

Miranda Markham community relations director at Bicester Village said "It will provide a vastly improved visual approach to the town and the new parking spaces will serve to further reduce congestion in the town."

Remembrance service for those who lost babies

A SERVICE for those who have lost a baby during pregnancy birth or infancy will take place this Saturday at Oxford's Christ Church Cathedral.

Saying Goodbye services are the first national set of specialised remembrance services which aim to remember the lives lost or cut short in a moving and reflective service.

The Oxford service will be the first of over 20 taking place in the UK this year

The idea came from Zoe and Andy Clark Coates, both 40 who have personally suffered the loss of five babies

The services are available for people of all faiths or no faith are free to attend and feature music personal eulogies and poetry

Andy said "People come with so many different stories and experiences and the service is designed to help them to accept their grief and we are hopeful at the end that they leave in a more hopeful place."

The first service was in September 2012 and has had attendants from teenagers to 90-year olds

The service will begin at 3pm.

Oxford's rowers battle hard on the road to Rio 2016

OXFORD rowers put themselves into contention for boat places during Olympic qualification year after giving impressive performances in the GB Rowing Team Trials last weekend at Caversham

The rowers from Oxford University and Henley s Leander Club faced adverse conditions on the water

Leander Club's Katie Greves, 32 who rowed in the women's eight at London 2012, teamed up with 29-year old Zoe Lee to finish third in the women's pair behind Olympic champions Helen Glover and Heather Stanning

The duo who had only been working together for a week and a half were also runner ups in Saturday s time-trial and impressively won their semi final on Sunday morning

It was nice to see just how far we have come in that time The target was simply to be best we can be and we put out a really solid marker" said Greves

Oxford Brookes University Boat Clubs' Olivia Carnegie-Brown 24 and partner Rosamund Bradbury 26 earned themselves a fourth place finish in the women s pair

Frances Houghton 34 from Oxford recovered well from a sticky start to the weekend to finish a fine third in the women s single scull behind Olympic medallist Katherine Grainger

And Constantine Louloudis, 23 who captained the Oxford University men's to the Boat Race victory just eight days before secured a runner up spot in a world-class men s pair final with Pete Reed 33

Louloudis said "We jumped in the boat on Monday so we had only seven sessions before racing

When you have so little time together the trajectory is pretty steep but having the semi finals delayed till Sunday morning gave us a little bit of time to catch up with everyone"

Sir David Tanner GB Rowing team performance director said "We had some outstanding racing today with some fantastic tight finishes

"Most of our top guns have performed to their best and we have also seen some young talent come through as well

He continued "The attitude and discipline of our rowers this weekend has been exceptional and this will be a good base for us to form our boats for the European championships over the next few weeks"

May Day preparations

PREPARATIONS are underway for this year's May Morning celebrations taking place once again at Magdalen Bridge in Oxford on May 1

The annual event sees traditional dancing and singing, with the choristers of Magdalen College giving their rendition of the Hymnus Eucharisticus from the Great Tower at 6am

And Oxford City Council have confirmed that the bridge will again be open to visitors from 3am after it was closed from 2005 to 2010 to stop people jumping into the River Cherwell

Peter McQuitty head of policy culture and communications at the council said. "May Morning is a popular traditional celebration and over the last few years we've provided a safe environment in which people can enjoy this event

It is always dangerous to enter the river regardless of the water levels and you are often unaware of the currents the river levels or what lies on the river bed

"We will continue to support and promote all the activities and events taking place across the city for the people of Oxford to enjoy together"

Other events on the day include Morris Men dancing in Radcliffe Square Catte Street and Broad Street, as well as many bars and restaurants opening for breakfast across the city centre

Volunteers save Bagley Wood toads

VOLUNTEERS joined Oxfordshire County Council and a local toad patrol to scour Bagley Wood to help 51 vulnerable amphibians reach their breeding ground safely

A seven strong crew spent two evenings on April 2 and 3 gathering up the toads and transporting them across roads

The team donned protective clothing and set out road warning signs for volunteers to protect the species in a very hazardous environment.

The volunteers were from Skanska's highways maintenance team who travelled down 400 metres of verge often next to fast moving traffic, in the darkness

Richard Lovewell, responsible for Skanska's highways work in Oxfordshire said "Once the patrol was brought to our attention we were more than happy to help

'It was the perfect way to support a local volunteer group and interesting to learn about ancient toad migration routes"

Bagley Wood's toad patrol is coordinated from Toads on Roads, a nationwide scheme that for 20 years and helped protect almost 77 000 roads across 140 sites last year

The patrol has rescued 300 Bagley Wood toads this year

Patrol co ordinator Lisa Tem ple said, "Patrolling our toad migration route is hazardous for volunteers and we are very grateful to Skanska and Oxfordshire County Council for their advice and kind donation of high visibility clothing."

fl is estimated 20 tonnes of toads are killed each year on UK roads with 3 000 killed last year on manned crossings alone

Should I have my hearing checked?

Keith Donaghy R.H.A.D , FS.H.A.A. has the answers.

Just like eyes and teeth, I recommend that hearing is checked regularly probably once a year or certainly if someone thinks that their hearing is diminishing. All hearing tests and consultations are free at Keith Donaghy Hearingcare

How do I detect a change in my hearing?

It is usually difficult because the deterioration is often gradual so hearing needs to be checked regularly by a professional Friends and relatives may tell you that you are not hearing properly or you may find that the television volume needs to be turned up for you to hear it.

When do I need to use a hearing aid?

If you have a significant loss in your hearing then a new digital hearing aid system will bring your hearing back to as near normal as possible There are many digital systems available on the market and generally speaking the more sophisticated the system the more expensive it is

How much do hearing aids cost?

When investing in a hearing aid system you are not just purchasing hearing aids but also the after care package so it is important to consider what the standard of help and advice is available when you start wearing your new hearing aids At Keith Donaghy Hearingcare prices start from £960 00 for a pair of the latest digital technology hearing aids which includes the initial hearing test, fitting and complete aftercare package Because Keith Donaghy is local patients rarely wait more than a few days before they can see him

How long do hearing aids last?

All hearing aids come with a 2 year manufacturers guarantee Providing that the hearing aids system is cleaned and serviced regularly it could last for 5 or even 8 years However many people change their system after 3 to 4 years usually because they want to use the latest technology available

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column each row and each of the nine 3×3 sub grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes" "blocks" "regions" or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid which for a well posed puzzle has a unique solution

One killer comedian

STAND UP comedian Andrew Lawrence pledged his 'Reasons to Kill Yourself' show will provide a boost to those feeling low about life

By James Richings
jamesr@claphamnewspapers.co.uk

His tour will be at The Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot this Saturday April 25

"This is a show for anyone who's lost all their enthusiasm for life and yet gets on with it anyway despite not being entirely sure why" he told the Guardian

"It's a miserable show for miserable people – but even for people who aren't miserable it can still provide an evening of laughter because there's a load of great jokes in it."

The 35 year old started his comedy career as a student at the University of St Andrews

"This summer I will be performing my 10th show in consecutive years at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival," he added.

It is truly a hideous event where I am fairly sure I have met over the years some of the most horrendous people ever to have walked the face of the earth

"However I've got an audience there now so I go back every year for the money

"Also I'm taking my dog this time so I think I'll manage to get through it without needing counselling after"

Not one afraid to express his opinions, the comic has also been known to discuss controversial topics leading to Twitter debates with fellow comedians

"I just say what I think is going to make people laugh – I don't consider my material from a moral perspective as I think that's a job for audiences and critics not for me," he said.

The show – at 8pm – is suitable for over 16s and costs £13.50 to £15

Little Red Riding Hood

FAMILIES in Oxford will be glad to hear that a fresh twist on the well-loved tale of Little Red Riding Hood will be the Oxford Playhouse this Saturday, April 25.

Performed by the Norwich Puppet Theatre Company, the audience will see Red Riding Hood make her way to her grandmother's house through a forest filled with howling wolves.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspaper.co.uk

After bumping into one of the animals, the youngster has to use her wits against the hungry wolf.

"Expect the unexpected as the story has some surprise twists," director Joy Haynes told the Guardian.

"Little Red is much more proactive and feisty in this version of the story and finds a very funny way to outwit the wolf.

"There are over 18 puppets used in the show and a host of great songs."

First written by French author Charles Perrault in 1697, the famous fairy tale has seen over 100 different adaptations.

"Red Riding Hood will have all the family laughing, whether you're four or 94," Joy added.

"Live theatre gives children the opportunity to be transported into a story, sparking their imaginations.

"It's an experience like no other and puppetry is a great introduction to theatre for young children.

"Also, the show is performed by two amazing puppeteers who are Shane Connolly and Clare Rebekah Pointing, and despite the fact that they are not even hidden when they are on stage, this doesn't spoil the illusion of the puppets coming to life.

"The magical thing about puppet theatre is what every your age, whether you're a child or an adult, you instinctively suspend your disbelief and the puppet turns into a breathing, living character before your eyes."

Tickets cost from £6 to £8 and the two shows, suitable for over fours, start at 11am and 2pm.

Penelope: the waiting game

IT is a bold take on Homer's mythical Odyssey told from the point of view of the Greek hero s wife

And solo show Penelope RETOLD will be at the Oxford Playhouse tonight and tomorrow April 23 and 24

The epic poem – one of the oldest surviving works of Western literature – usually focuses on Odysseus and his 10-year journey home after the Trojan war

We meet Penelope stuck in an endless waiting game," writer performer Caroline Horton told the Guardian

Her husband Odysseus is a great war hero and having once returned from Troy after 20 years he immediately left again.

"So Penelope is still there on their bed on his rocky island of Ithaca trying to decide what to do and how to feel.

"This is a show where there's a very direct and playful relationship with the audience so they are right there with her"

Caroline created the show after the idea was suggested by an artistic director of a show at a theatre in Derby

After graduating with a degree in English Literature from Cambridge University the 33 year-old went on to write and star in stage and radio plays

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

over the UK and beyond as well as running workshops about drama

And Caroline s work has not gone unnoticed

The Birmingham-based performer was nominated for the 'Outstanding Achievement in the Affiliate Theatre' category at the 2013 Olivier Awards for her 2010 play 'You re Not Like The Other Girls Chrissy'

"I was stunned and delighted about the nomination," Caroline said

"Also I am very much looking forward to being back to the Oxford Playhouse I performed my first show 'You re Not Like The Other Girls Chrissy' there in 2011 and since then, I was an artist in residence on the Evolve schemo so I spent a lot of time in the building generally"

Three shows place over the two days on Thursday at 7 30pm and on Friday at 6pm and 8 30pm

It is suitable for over 13s

Tickets cost £8 to £10

Matt Richardson started doing stand-up in November 2009 aged 18. After gigging really hard for about 18 months he quit University and a job in a lettings office to become the youngest professional comedian working in the UK at 20.

"This (extremely) young stand-up is set to become the next bright, young sensation on the circuit, expect to hear a lot more of him"– The Guardian

Short Spots

Two shorter spots in the middle section

Eshaan Akbar

Lucas Jolson

George Egg Wildly brandishing the worlds' second largest briefcase containing a battery of ridiculous props, George bounds onto the stage to perform one of the most original, interesting, innovative, and sweetly whimsical comedy performances you are ever likely to see. A true cross between alternative stand-up comedy and music hall variety. George Egg has been a professional stand-up comedian, actor and writer for the last ten years. He has an extremely successful solo show with which he has toured Europe and of course extensively in the UK, both on the stage and on the television.

"A hugely entertaining variety turn"– The Guardian

Diddy strive to finish season with victory

DIDCOT Town joint manager Ian Concannon has hailed his club s style of football and is confident they can maintain their top half status heading into the season s final game

The Diddy suffered a second consecutive loss in the Southern League Division One South & West in a 1 0 defeat to Swindon Supermarine

Concannon s side was unable to break down a resolute Swindon defence and the Railwaymen now face a battle to hold onto their seventh place position

Supermarine's solitary goal proved to be the difference between the two sides in Wiltshire in Town s penultimate league game

John Mills had an early opportunity to give Diddy the lead but ex Didcot keeper Sam Warrell kept things goalless

But Supermarine s Josh Morse picked up an a defensive error to slot home just after 11 minutes

Town s Jack Selftested Warrell with an effort but Didcot should have equalised when Luke Carnell's shot beat the goalkeeper but slammed against the crossbar

The second half proved to be fruitless for Diddy who upped the tempo of their game

The game also came with another blow for Didcot as joint manager Jamie Heapy playing his 348th game for the club came off with a suspected hamstring injury

The injury could rule Heapy out for the rest of the season and his testimonial in three weeks' time

Ian Concannon said after the game "Despite us playing a lot of good football, we could never penetrate their back line.

"On another day we could have scored more as we were definitely the dominant team in the second half

Welsh target improvement versus Tigers

LONDON Welsh look to continue their streak of improving performances as they head to the Leicester Tigers this Saturday afternoon.

However the difficult task of stifling the Tigers will come with the added concern that the home side have only been defeated once in their last 13 home games at Welford Road

That home defeat came with a narrow defeat to 22 19 defeat to London Irish back in September last year but Welsh could argue they have nothing to lose as they are set to play their 20th Premiership game without adding to their solitary point

The Welsh have on average conceded in excess of 46 points per game over the league season with Newcastle Falcons and London Irish being the only sides not to tally a try bonus point against the Exiles

The chance to grab a win at Leicester would be a historic triumph as the last Welsh win over Leicester came nearly 22 years ago in a 9-8 victory

The last three meetings between the two have all resulted in Tigers wins with November s meeting resulting in a 26-5 scoreline

Magic Barcelos strike earns City super victory

A STUNNING last minute overhead kick goal gave Oxford City a vital three points as they ran out 2-1 winners in an enthralling match against Gainsborough Trinity

Oxford grabbed the winner through substitute Felipe Barcelos who did the seemingly impossible and scissor kicked the ball past the Trinity keeper despite hand ball calls

City had been trailing for nearly three quarters of the game before they found an equaliser through Darren Pond who cancelled out Simon Russell s first half goal

The result means Oxford maintain their sixth position in the Vanarama Conference North as they prepare to face Guiseley in fifth, at Marsh Lane for the final game of this season on Saturday

City started the match with a purpose and attacked well down the right wing through Luke Coulson

Trinity got their noses in front through a fine team move as Steve Brogan had his shot blocked on the line and Russell stepped up to power the ball past Oxford keeper Salva De La Cruz.

Half time came without much goalmouth action before Trinity came bursting out of the blocks in the second half with Brogan and Russell going close

Oxford finally found their golden chance after a quick break resulted in Pond firing from five yards out

The winner came from a corner into a flooded penalty box including De La Cruz which fell to Barcelos whose ingenuity grabbed City the vital win

Former England fly half recommits to Welsh

North Leigh strut to victory

NORTH Leigh sauntered to an easy 1-0 win in their last home game of the season against Southampton-based side Sholing FC at Eynsham Park.

Winger Michael Hopkins delivered a peach of a free-kick past Sholing keeper Matt Brown on the hour mark in a match where end of season fatigue played its part in the drop of quality on display.

Leigh had completely dominated Sholing up until the goal but once they'd gone behind, the visitors came to life and very easily could have grabbed an equaliser in the dying minutes with captain Barry Mason powering over the bar from close range.

It was a well-deserved win for North Leigh who travel down to Somerset to face Clevedon Town FC for the final game of the season as they aim for a top 10 finish in the Evo-stik Southern League Division One & West.

Elsewhere Wantage Town failed to capitalise on the news that they are staying up as they couldn't hold off Wimborne Town in a 1-0 defeat at the final home game of the season at Alfredian Park.

A last minute back post header from Mark Gamble won the game for Wimborne, a timely reward for the visitors who totally dominated a resilient Wantage side.

Wantage had few opportunities over the course of the game to test the Magpies but could have found an equaliser in injury time if it wasn't for Billy Maybury's goal-line clearance.

The Freds now look to end their season with a trip to fourth-placed Taunton Town as they bid a end their season on a high.

Barkley is third in the Premiership's all time points scoring list with 1,665 points from 193 Premiership appearances and made his debut with Bath in 2001.

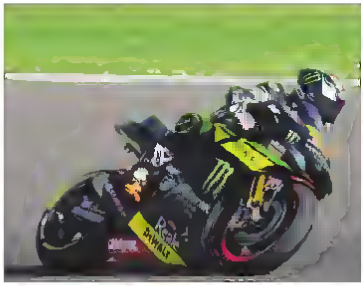
Smith scores consecutive top-six finishes



MONSTER Yamaha Tech 3's Bradley Smith kept the momentum of his strong start to the season going with a sixth place finish in Argentina at round three of the MotoGP World Championship.

The Oxford rider moved up from 10th on the grid and under a baking sun held his qualifying position from the off before gliding through the field to claim a top result from an unlikely position.

With 15 laps remaining, Smith dived inside Alex Espargaro to move into seventh before greeting the chequered flag with a solid all round performance in what was his second sixth place finish in a row.

Fellow Tech3 rider Spaniard Pol Espargaro came home eighth in the challenging race after starting from 18th on the grid.

Smith said after the race: "I am really happy about taking home this position as it is far better than we expected.

"I will gladly take this result as it confirms my third consistent race finish in the top eight."

The next race is at Jerez, Spain on May 3.

89th BTCC victory for Plato as BMR thrive in Donington

OXFORD'S Jason Plato secured his 89th BTCC victory to ensure Team BMR continue their strong form in the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) at Donington Park.

Double champion Plato's victory came in the first of his three races in his VW whilst defending champion and team mate Colin Turkington finished third with Honda's Gordon Shedden in second.

The second race proved to be less fruitful for Plato as he had to settle for a fifth place finish whilst Turkington took the top step of the podium.

The third race saw both drivers drop down the grid with Plato finishing eighth and Turkington 13th but Team BMR continue to lead the team's standings ahead of Honda Yuasa Racing.

Plato (47) is fifth in the driver's standings as a result.

Plato said after the race: "It was a great weekend for me, a great weekend for the team but I think it should have been three wins with Aron Smith joining us.

"We're in good shape bonestly. The cars are fast and the team is working well together I'm pleased."

The championship will resume at Thruxton on Saturday May 9.

Wokingham split their four goals equally with two in each half to win the division by a nine-point margin.

UNITED KNOCK LOWLY ROVERS FOR THREE

Roofe bags two as Oxford continue march up the table

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

THE U's kept Tranmere rooted to the foot of the Sky Bet League Two table in a crushing 3 0 victory at Prenton Park on Saturday

Michael Appleton's men rose to 15th in the table after a brace from West Brom loanee, Kemar Roofe and a goal from winger Danny Rose all in the second half

Rovers simply couldn t get going against a resolute Oxford side that kept possession well as they look to end the season in fine form

The result means that United remain unbeaten in their last six matches heading into their final home game of the season against Cambridge United on Saturday

More than 5 700 fans turned up for a must not lose game for Tranmere

Rovers Max Power tested United keeper Jamie Ashdown only making his second senior start, in the first minute with a curling effort Rovers Jennison Myrie-Williams had the best effort of the first half after breaking into the box but dragged his left foot shot wide across goal.

The attempt woke United up and Rovers keeper Owain Fon Williams was called into action twice at the end of the half with Roofe shooting wide from a fast paced counter attack and midfielder Alex MacDonald also forced a smart save

The opening 45 minutes ended in a goalmouth scramble in Ashdown s box but Oxford safely saw it out

From the whistle The U's took charge in the second half and just after a deflected Danny Hylton shot, an unmarked Roofe planted in the opener from a whipped Chris Long cross in the 51st minute

Just two minutes later United broke into the box and Hylton, criminally unmarked played in Rose for his second of the season

The goal sparked a chorus of boos in a tense atmosphere and Rovers couldn t work their way into a goal-scoring position

After 68 minutes United wrapped the game up with a silky team move as Hylton nodded a cross to Roafe who volleyed in from an awkward angle

The game teetered out and it was joy for United but despair for Rovers who remain bottom but two points from safety with two games to go
